Your home is an oasis, a place to make memories and to express who you really are. At Ballard Designs, you'll find inspiration, excitement and all the ingredients you need to transform your decorating ideas into reality. Our designers travel the world in search of new trends that we translate into exclusive products. Just like Maggie Griffin, the sought-after designer we're thrilled to partner with for this year's Home for the Holidays Showhouse.

Maggie Griffin established her eponymous firm almost a decade ago, cultivating a clientele that spans across Georgia, to projects in the Carolinas, Alabama and Florida. Maggie's passion for creating a home for her clients is evident in her detail, from finish selections, to antique china collections, to comfortable furnishings. With a love of Southern design, Maggie has created a signature style comprised of classics mixed with modern touches. She resides in Gainesville, Georgia, with her husband and two boys.
